AMERICAN ELECTRIC POWER | ZERO HARM℠

PRE-JOB BRIEFING FORM

54682X0223

Street Address for EMS: _____

Closest Medical Facility: _____

Date: _____ Time: _____ Person in charge: _____

Location: _____

Job brief conducted by: _____

Pole #: _____ GPS: _____ Log on time: _____ Log off time: _____

Station / Circuit #: _____ Order / Outage #: _____

Energy source controls: ___ Fuse, ___ Re-closer, ___ CB, ___ Others - list items: _____

ARS Zone identified: [ ] Yes [ ] No List item #s: _____

Voltage being worked: _____ Phase to phase: _____ Ground to phase: _____ [ ] FR Arc Flash protection [ ] Discuss PPE/PIPE

NRO: _____ Dispatch Authority: _____ Hold: _____

Brief description of job scope: _____

Specific assignments of crew: _____

Spotter: _____

Observer(s): _____ Mechanic(s): _____ Working on: _____

TOP TEN ERROR PRECURSORS

1. Time pressure
2. Distractive Environment
3. High workload
4. Task unfamiliarity
5. First day back after day(s) off
6. One half-hour after wake-up or meal
7. Vague or incorrect guidance
8. Overconfidence
9. Imprecise communication
10. Stress

Remain vigilant watching for OVERCONFIDENCE 50% of all Human Error is due to Overconfidence

SAFER Model

Summarize the critical steps: (points of no return)

Anticipate errors or mistakes. Review error traps:

Foresee probable & worst case consequences:

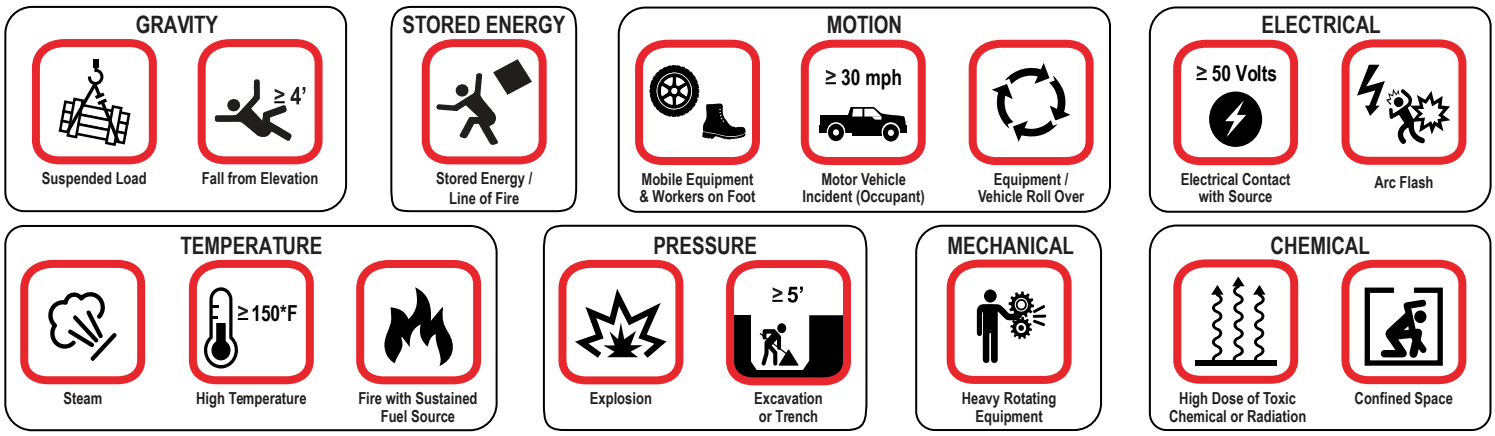

Evaluate layers of protection needed

Review previous relevant experience

ANY DEVIATION FROM THE PLAN DISCUSSED WILL RESULT IN STOPPING OF THE JOB BY ANYONE!

Briefly describe hazards & planned prevention: _____

HIGH ENERGY HAZARDS

What is the hazard?	When could it happen?	What are you doing about it?

POST JOB REVIEW

EXIT STRATEGY

Performance Mode: (check one) [ ] Skill Based [ ] Rule Based [ ] Knowledge Based

Human Performance Tools: [ ] Task Preview SAFER Model [ ] Self Checking (STAR) [ ] STOP when uncertain

[ ] Peer Coaching [ ] CAT (Change Awareness & Tracking) [ ] STOP Before a Life Saving Rule is Broken

Heat Index > 91° F _____ [ ] Alert crew of hazards [ ] Review heat related illness signs & symptoms

[ ] Crew has enough water at jobsite [ ] Establish a fluid-drinking / break schedule [ ] Adjust work activities

[ ] Plan rotations to job task [ ] Use sunscreen Hydration Monitor: _____

Each of the following crew members has been included in this discussion involving the potential risks of work at this location & understands the necessary precautions to insure the safety of everyone involved in this job.

Sign Below (Print)